Austrian Woodcarving Weeks 2026

Carvers' Programme

A relaxed start

Arrival on Saturday (or Sunday). Settle in without any rush, enjoy dinner and begin to acclimatise to your Alpine surroundings. On Sunday, take your time with a long breakfast, explore the village or enjoy a gentle walk. The first group meeting takes place on Sunday evening at 6.00 pm, where you will meet your instructor and fellow participants.

Course structure

Tutored carving sessions run from Monday morning to Saturday lunch, offering plenty of time to start and complete your work. Practical teaching is complemented by optional theory sessions held alongside the carving classes.

This year, we especially want to support you during the process of creating a carving from scratch. Therefore, there will be special theory classes during these two weeks, including aspects as sketching a project, concepts, creating a model etc.

Course hours

Mon - Fri: 8.30 - 12.00 & 13.30 - 18.00

Sat: 8.30 - 11.30

The first Saturday features a full-day excursion, together with the non-carvers. On the second Saturday, classes run until lunchtime.

October special courses

Alongside carving and modelling, the following options are available in October:

Week 1

Chainsaw carving | Painting and gilding

Week 2

Bronze casting | Woodturning

You may choose to carve, model, or combine different courses during both weeks. Many courses can also be booked for 2½ days, allowing you to mix carving with another craft and discover something new.

Austrian Woodcarving Weeks 2026

Non-Carvers' Programme

Enjoy the Alps at your own pace

The non-carvers' programme is designed for those who wish to explore the region, enjoy gentle activities and maybe take part in a creative workshop – all without carving or taking a week-long class.

Each week includes two half-day activities and excursions, offering a varied and relaxed programme in and around the Lech Valley.

Included programme:

- Apple strudel baking – prepare this classic Austrian dessert together
- Herbal walk with hands-on workshop (teas, balms or similar natural products)
- Pottery workshop: model your own bowls, cups or small vessels
- Second pottery session: painting and glazing, followed by firing. Your finished pieces can be taken home.

In addition, there is plenty of free time for walking, hiking, Nordic walking (poles provided), cycling along the Lech river, or simply relaxing and enjoying the Alpine atmosphere.

Non-carvers will also join the full-day cultural tour together with the carvers.

If one or more persons are interested in doing other tours we will be glad to help you to organize that for you. Please note that these tours are not included and will be charged - the price will vary depending on the number of participants.

While the moulds are cooling, the tutor will give a clear introduction to the theory on Thursday and demonstrate all the important steps involved in bronze and hollow casting. This will allow you to experience the entire creation process of your own bronze work up close.

Our new ceramics workshop opens its doors two afternoons a week and invites all course participants to colour, glaze and fire their clay works on site – in the spirit of an ‘open workshop’.

During course hours, use of the workshop is free of charge for course participants. This allows you to finish your already fired clay objects at your leisure and with professional support.

Accompanying persons are also welcome: for a small additional fee, they can gain their first experience with clay with Sylvia's help or try their hand at painting.

In addition, new weekend workshops expand our range of courses – perfect for learning the basics of pottery (see page 13).
